Gospel Reflection John 1. 35-42

Invite Others To Meet Christ

"He first found his own brother Simon and told him, 'We have found the Messiah.'" After spending the day in the company of Christ, Andrew took action. He shared the good news! Instead of keeping his newfound friendship with Jesus all to himself, Andrew invited his brother into the fold. Andrew found Simon and "brought him to Jesus." This was no small matter because Simon would become Peter, the first pope! How important it is to bring others along with us to meet Christ!

Yet, how often do we reach out with the kind of confidence that Andrew had? Are we ready and willing to share our faith with our family and friends? Do we consider our relationship with Jesus a gift to be shared, or a fact to be safely hidden away in our personal prayer corner?

Part of our call as Christians is to evangelize others, to share with them the good news of salvation. Loving Jesus and following his moral commands is essential, of course, but it is not the end of the story. The Gospel message is meant for all people, and we are meant to be its messengers. Sometimes this requires us to step out of our comfort zone. It may mean speaking up when we'd rather be silent. It may mean inviting someone to Mass when they might say no. But it might also mean a conversion for someone we care about. It might mean a new minister for the Church. Ultimately, it might mean another saint in heaven.

None of that is up to us, however. What we can control is only whether we share our faith joyfully and extend the invitation to others to experience the peace that comes from knowing Christ.

Thank You From Amor Dei

Amor Dei would like to extend a sincere thank you to the parishioners of St Leonard's for responding wholeheartedly to our 2017 Christmas Hamper Program. Fifteen registered families received food, gifts, toiletries and grocery coupons on Dec. 15, 2017. Our task was made easier with the assistance of all the volunteers who came forward to pick-up, sort, collect, pack, donate, shop, deliver and clean up for this worthy endeavour. Thank you for your time and generous participation.

A special acknowledgement to the teachers and students of St Mark, St Jerome and St Leonard Schools for their enthusiasm and contributions which enhanced our hampers.

Finally, thank you to those who delivered our excess food to Waupoos Farm and the Caldwell Centre in Ottawa.

We pray for our Lord's continued blessings upon each one of you in the coming year and upon our parish community. Amor Dei Committee

"Being a disciple means being constantly ready to bring the love of Jesus to others, and this can happen unexpectedly and in any place."
